EmpowerHER Activity Template

Title of the Activity	Compilation of icebreaking activities - Entrepreneurship for Beginners
Partner	WIDE ANDCO
EmpowerHER Competence Framework reference	Introduction to entrepreneurial mindset
Competences	- Teamwork - Entrepreneurial mindset - Self-confidence, self-awareness - Decision making - Creativity

Format	In-person Ice-breaking activities
Target Group	Young women aged 16–25 interested in discovering entrepreneurial career paths
Duration	Between 15-45 minutes per activity

Materials & Tools Needed	Depending on the activity chosen, you'll need: Papers or printed templates, cards, sticky notes, markers/pens, dices, a piece of string.

Methodology	The methodology is specific to each activity, but overall, icebreaking activities are separated into three phases: introductory phase to present the activity, carrying out the activity (most of the time interactive), and finally, feedback on the activity and what the participants learned The different activities offered in this compilation can take the form of games, presentations/pitch, role-plays, project work, teamwork serves as a valuable tool to foster connection, trust, and collaboration among participants during a bootcamp. These activities help create an inclusive and supportive atmosphere where young people feel more comfortable expressing themselves, engaging with others, and stepping out of their comfort zones. Especially in entrepreneurship-focused programs like EmpowerHER, icebreakers are essential for building the interpersonal confidence and team spirit needed for co-creation, problem-solving, and idea sharing. They lay the groundwork for a positive group dynamic, which is key to a successful and impactful learning experience.
